

Job Description

Role: Project Design Engineer
Location: Farnham, Surrey.

The Project Design Engineer will be responsible for producing schemes and designs for lighting control, lighting and modular wiring solutions that best fits the customer requirement. The enquiry will come in to the Technical Sales Manager who will liaise with the Design Engineer to compile all the relevant information (specification, lighting design, controls etc). You will then design the schematics and wiring in AutoCAD to ensure it matches customer requirements.

- Review the specification documents and drawings provided to ensure.
- Provide accurate and efficient lighting control and modular wiring schemes in CAD format on time and to budget.
- Create lighting scheme designs using CAD and Dialux (training will be provided).
- Produce a Quotation for the customer to place their order against.
- Communicate with and support both the internal & external teams.

Key skills and attributes

- IT Literate, Word, Excel & PowerPoint. (essential).
- AutoCAD (essential).
- Qualified or Conversant with the latest Edition of Electrical Wiring Regulations.
- Lighting Control experience would be an advantage
- Pre-Fabricated Wiring Solutions experience would be an advantage
- Lighting design experience would be an advantage
- Team player.

TheisCraft can offer a competitive salary and benefits package, which includes:

- Salary according to experience
- 25 days holidays plus bank holidays
- Contributory pension scheme
- Training
- Overtime and other benefits are available.